Perhaps "Mission Québec" as we call it, began back in 1988 when Shelly & I with our three children moved to Sherbrooke Québec to learn French. We were on our way to Burkina Faso W. Africa, but our love for the people of Québec began then.

Exactly ten years later in perfect timing the Lord graciously allowed us to return to live in Gatineau Québec. Our daughters Krysta and Kyla met and married their life's partners taking on the true Québec culture. Kurt fully bilingual is pursuing God's call to ministry.

During the last 7 1/2 yrs. the Lord has networked us with many others to advance His kingdom.

Ten short term teams came from the West, several church visits resulting in several families moving to Québec.

Twelve ACOP pastors/workers, fellowship among more than 10 churches, a Bible camp as well as a correspondence Bible college.

In September 2005 Quebec became an ACOP district with the ultimate goal that people be saved and disciplined through existing churches and new churches. Recently pastors have worked to open French and Spanish works with visions for more. We believe God loves people more than anything so the vision for the future remains the same: "Win the lost at any cost."

May God be praised!!
