ACOP MISSIONARY

Megan Prichard

My name is Megan Prichard... soon to be Kreba as I am engaged to be married May 23, 2006 to Derek Kreba. Ever since I was a young girl and God met me at summer camp my heart has been for the lost. I knew from a very young age the Lord would make a way for me to travel the world to tell of His goodness. It was prophesied over me, when I was about 16 years old, that I would go to other countries, speak different languages, understand other cultures and through my own life people would see Jesus and God would reveal Himself to His people. I went on my first short term mission in 2000 with YWAM and Kings Kids to Juarez, Mexico. The Lord sealed it in my heart that I was to tell of his love throughout the nations. I didn't feel like I had a story to tell or a miraculous testimony but what God wants me to speak of has nothing to do with myself but to share truth in Jesus' name. My most recent mission took me to a place where God taught me what it meant to depend on him daily, in everything. He is a protector and a provider but greatest of all He is our Father and He is with us ALL the time. The Lord is doing amazing works in "Asia" and our prayers are needed for the team there; for wisdom, health, and protection as they live amongst Moslems and serve everyday. I am so thankful for my time there and what the Lord taught me and the depth he took me. My work is not finished there, I have simply been relocated! Thank you for your continued prayers and support!
