ACOP MISSIONARIES

James & Naomi Borden

In my early years I was a missionaries kid from Tanganyika and then I went back to the States and attended North Western College where I received higher education and I worked for several years as a musical evangelist basically in the United States.

Then in 1963 I went to East Africa (Kenya) where I was doing more youth evangelism in the mission field and then in 1966 I moved to South Africa and then up to what was then known as Rhodesia where I became a part of the ACOP fellowship, working under Albert and Verna Roberts. There I met my first wife Joan Richardson and was married in 1968. We worked in South Africa for a few years and have been in Gweru, Zimbabwe since 1978. I have worked in the Midlands district of Zimbabwe with Gweru being the main point of ministry and I am still here. My first wife died in 2001 and I was remarried to Naomi Bloom (nee Erickson in 2004). Naomi was a missionaries daughter in Congo and has had a very fruitful life in Christian writing and Christian Radio with North Western College in Saint Paul, Minnesota, United States. Her former husband died of Cancer in 1998. One of my current responsibilities is that since coming to Gweru I have been Senior Pastor of Emmanuel Fellowship (a multi-racial church) which was started by Pastor Albert Heinzig.

We at ACOP are praying for our Missionaries & invite you to join us for the
